

BCL

► BULLÉE CONSULTING LTD.

SUMMER RESIDENT ENGINEER

Bullée Consulting Ltd. is a progressive engineering firm, recognized for technical expertise and client service. The firm provides municipal engineering services, specializing in land development, water and wastewater treatment and related systems.

JOB DESCRIPTION

We are seeking several students to fill the role of 'Resident Engineer.' Successful candidates will aid Project Engineers in the delivery of engineering services to clients. Duties will primarily consist of on-site construction services including layout, contract interpretation, quantity and quality control.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

When not on-site, Resident Engineers will provide assistance in the office. Duties include preparation of drawings, quantity takeoffs, cost estimates and preliminary design tasks. As travel is a critical element to this position, a reliable vehicle and valid driver's license is required.

QUALIFICATIONS

Preferred candidates will have completed a minimum of two years of undergraduate study in civil engineering. A background in construction, surveying, or previous engineering experience will be considered an asset, however is not required.

Salary is negotiable, based on the candidate's experience. If interested, please submit a resume as soon as possible in person, by mail, or e-mail to bcl@bulleeconsulting.com prior to March 15th, 2017.

We thank all those interested, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

